Approved For Release 2004/10/12: GIA-RDP81M00980R000800120064-1

ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

1. LIAISON Sent by courier to John Carbaugh, in the office of Honorable Josse A. Helms (R., N. Car.), the following publications, per his request of 5 July: "China Oil Production Prospects," June 1977; xeroxed pages on Peoples Republic of China and Taiwan from the National Intelligence Factbook, January 1978; "Ehina: International Trade, 1976-77," November 1977; "China: Economic Indicators," October 1977; "A Study of Climatological Research as it Pertains to Intelligence Problems," August 1974; "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate," August 1974; PRC Atlas and a wall chart on "Chinese Communist 1974; PRC Atlas and a wall chart on "Chinese Communist Party Organizations," September 1977. These publications are for Mr. Carbaugh's reading in advance of a speech the Senator is preparing to make. 2. LIAISON Called Lot Cooke, Senator is preparing to make. 2. LIAISON Called Lot Cooke, Senator is preparing to make. 2. LIAISON Called Lot Cooke, which is a speech the senatorials we had provided them on the MKULTRA program rather than returning them to the Agency. Cooke said he thought that was satisfactory but because there was so much material it might be a logistics problem. I said I would check with the Office of Security to see if they could pick up the burn bags for the Committee. 3. LIAISON Dave Fitzgerald, Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utah), was at Headquarters for an NFAC briefing on the general military, political and economic situation in Rhodesia. Fitzgerald leaves for Rhodesia on behalf of Senator Garn this afternoon. The briefers were set of the productions. Were provided the would be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to share his observations.	Friday - 7 July 1978
To John Carbaugh, in the office of Honorable Jesse A. Helms (R., N. Car.), the following publications, per his request of 5 July: "China Oil Production Prospects," June 1977; xeroxed pages on Peoples Republic of China and Taiwan from the National Intelligence Factbook, January 1978; "China: International Trade, 1976-77," November 1977; "China's Economy," November 1977; "China: Economic Indicators," October 1977; "A Study of Climatological Research as it Pertains to Intelligence Problems," August 1974; "Potential Implications of Trends Problems," August 1974; "Potential Implications of Trends Problems," September 1977. These publications are for Mr. Carbaugh's reading in advance of a speech the Senator is preparing to make. 2. LIAISON Called Lot Cooke, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inform him we would prefer to have the Select Committee destroy the materials we had provided them on the MKUUTRA program rather than returning them to the Agency. Cooke said he thought that was satisfactory but because there was so much material it might be a logistics problem. I said I would check with the Office of Security to see if they could pick up the burn bags for the Committee. 3. LIAISON Dave Fitzgerald, Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utah), was at Headquarters for an NFAC briefing on the general military, political and economic situation in Rhodesia. Fitzgerald leaves for Rhodesia on behalf of Senator Garn this afternoon. OER/NFAC. Pitzgerald indicated he would be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to share his observations.
November 1977; "China's Economy," November 1977; "China: Economic Indicators," October 1977; "A Study of Climatological Research as it Pertains to Intelligence Problems," August 1974; "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate," August 1974; PRC Atlas and a wall chart on "Chinese Communist Party Organizations," September 1977. These publications are for Mr. Carbaugh's reading in advance of a speech the Senator is preparing to make. 2. LIAISON Called Lot Cooke, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inform him we would prefer to have the Select Committee destroy the materials we had provided them on the MKULTRA program rather than returning them to the Agency. Cooke said he thought that was satisfactory but because there was so much material it might be a logistics problem. I said I would check with the Office of Security to see if they could pick up the burn bags for the Committee. 3. LIAISON Dave Fitzgerald, Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utah), was at Headquarters for an NFAC briefing on the general military, political and economic situation in Rhodesia. Fitzgerald leaves for Rhodesia on behalf of Senator Garn this afternoon. The briefers were ORPA/NFAC, OEF/NFAC, and CSS/NFAC. Fitzgerald indicated he would be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to share his observations.	to John Carbaugh, in the office of Honorable Jesse A. Helms (R., N. Car.), the following publications, per his request of 5 July: "China Oil Production Prospects," June 1977; xeroxed pages on Peoples Republic of China June 1977; xeroxed pages on Peoples Republic of China
Senator is preparing to make. 2. LIAISON Called Lot Cooke, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inform him we would prefer to have the Select Committee destroy the materials we had provided them on the MKULTRA program rather than returning them to the Agency. Cooke said he thought that was satisfactory but because there was so much material it might be a logistics problem. I said I would check with the Office of Security to see if they could pick up the burn bags for the Committee. 3. LIAISON Dave Fitzgerald, Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utah), was at Headquarters for an NFAC briefing on the general military, political and economic situation in Rhodesia. Fitzgerald leaves for Rhodesia on behalf of Senator Garn this afternoon. The briefers were ORPA/NFAC, OER/NFAC, and CSS/NFAC. Fitzgerald indicated he would be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to share his observations.	January 1978; "China: International Transfer 1977; November 1977; "China's Economy," November 1977; "China: Economic Indicators," October 1977; "A Study "China: Economic Indicators," October 1977; "A Study of Climatological Research as it Pertains to Intelligence of Climatological Research as it Pertains
Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inform him we would prefer to have the Select Committee destroy the materials we had provided them on the MKULTRA program rather than returning them to the Agency. Cooke said he thought that was satisfactory but because there was so much material it might be a logistics problem. I said I would check with the Office of Security to see if they could pick up the burn bags for the Committee. 3. LIAISON Dave Fitzgerald, Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utah), was at Headquarters for an NFAC briefing on the general military, political and economic situation in Rhodesia. Fitzgerald leaves for Rhodesia on behalf of Senator Garn this afternoon. The briefers were ORPA/NFAC, OER/NFAC, and CSS/NFAC. Fitzgerald indicated he would be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to share his observations.	Senator is preparing to make.
Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utan), was at Headquarters for an NFAC briefing on the general military, political and economic situation in Rhodesia. Fitzgerald leaves for Rhodesia on behalf of Senator Garn this afternoon. The briefers were ORPA/NFAC, OER/NFAC, and CSS/NFAC. Fitzgerald indicated he would be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to share his observations.	Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inform him we would prefer to have the Select Committee destroy the materials we had provided them on the MKULTRA program rather than returning them to the Agency. Cooke said he thought that was satisfactory but because there was so much material it might be a logistics problem. I said I would check with the Office of Security to see if they could pick up the burn bags for the Committee.
The briefers were CSS/NFAC. Fitzgerald indicated he would and be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to share his observations.	Legislative Assistant to Senator Jake Garn (R., Utan), was at Headquarters for an NFAC briefing on the general military, political and economic situation in Rhodesia. Fitzgerald leaves for Rhodesia on behalf of Senator Garn this afternoon.
Acting Legislative Counsel	and CSS/NFAC. Fitzgerald indicated he would be glad to talk with these analysts, after his return, to
Acting Legislative Counsel
	Acting Legislative Counses

X1